

Health Data Sciences PhD Program at the Charité - Universitätsmedizin Berlin: Informational meeting

Date: Monday, November 16, from 5:00pm-6:30pm

Location: Online – Register with us to receive the Zoom link

Dear prospective applicants and friends of the Health Data Sciences PhD program,

On Monday November 16, 2020 from 5:00pm – 6:30pm, the HDS PhD program will offer an interactive information session for interested applicants. Due to the current pandemic situation and the need for social distancing, the meeting will be held virtually on Zoom.

At the meeting, we will present detailed information about:

- the structure of the HDS PhD program and our goals
- the application and admission processes
- finding supervisors and financing your time as a PhD student
- suitable HDS dissertation topics / relevant research domains

There will also be an interactive Q&A session following the presentation.

If you would like to attend, please send a short email to hds-phd@charite.de with the subject line “HDS PhD Info Meeting” to register. We will send you a reply containing information about how to join the digital meeting. If you have never used Zoom before, please join a test meeting ahead of time to check your connection: <https://zoom.us/test>.

Please note: The HDS PhD program will accept new applications from February 1 until March 31, 2021 for a formal start date of October 1, 2021. Applications submitted outside of this window will not be considered. Full program details and a FAQ can be found here:
